Request for Orders to Stop Harassment
Petitioner: Christine Sontag
Respondent: William Bookout

Attachment Item 6 – Describe Harassment

Petitioner Christine Sontag ("Sontag") is an officer and an employee of Santa Barbara Bank & Trust, N.A. ("SBBT"). Respondent William Bookout ("Bookout") took out a Small Business Administration ("SBA") sponsored loan from SBBT in 2003. Bookout defaulted on that loan in 2006, and thereafter SBBT and Bookout entered into a Forbearance Agreement in 2007 which allowed Bookout to cure his default and modified the terms of the loan. Bookout again defaulted on the Forbearance Agreement in December 2009 and has failed to make any payments since that time. SBBT's original outside counsel, George Lazar contacted Bookout in December 2010 and notified him that as a result of his default, SBBT was commencing foreclosure proceedings on the property securing repayment of Bookout's loan.

Bookout responded by making baseless and unsupported allegations of fraud and misconduct against SBBT. Due to the false and serious nature of Bookout's allegations, Mr. Lazar demanded that Bookout was to direct all communications regarding his loan to Mr. Lazar and to no other employees, officers or directors of SBBT. A true and correct copy of several letters sent by Mr. Lazar to Bookout beginning in December 2010 advising him that he was to direct all communications only to him are hereto attached as Exhibit A and incorporated herein. Bookout disregarded the demands. The communications set forth in Exhibit A demonstrate that Mr. Lazar continually demanded that Bookout cease all communications with any SBBT employees, officers or directors.

In the four and a half months since December 2010, Bookout has bombarded SBBT employees with more than 200 communications on an almost daily basis. Bookout sends emails, voicemails, telephone calls and letters to various SBBT officers, directors and employees. A sampling of some of these communications is attached hereto as Exhibit H and incorporated herein. Due to the fact that Bookout's communications are so voluminous, and in deference to the Court's filing system, not all of Bookout's communications have been included, but both Sontag and counsel for Sontag attest to the fact that the total number of written communications from Bookout to SBBT employees, officers and directors since December 2010 exceeds 200. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag, ¶ 10 and Declaration of Diana Jessup Lee, ¶ 2.) Most of the communications are nearly identical, repeat the same false and unsupported accusations against SBBT, and repeat the same questions over and over. Most of the employees, officers and directors that have been the target of Bookout's communications have no involvement with the processing of Bookout's loan. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag, ¶ 3.) Furthermore, almost all of the employees, officers and directors that Bookout has harassed are not even a part of SBBT's SBA lending department which is in charge of Bookout's loan. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag, ¶ 4.) Receiving and determining what to do with Bookout's voluminous and hostile emails and telephone calls has distracted many employees from their assigned duties. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag ¶¶ 7 and 8.)

In March 2011, the responsibility for handling Bookout's claims was transferred to Diana Jessup Lee. Ms. Lee contacted Bookout and advised him that she was the designated representative for SBBT who would be handling his loan and that all communications regarding his loan were to be directed to her and no other SBBT employee, director or officer. True and correct copies of several initial letters sent by Ms. Lee to Bookout advising him that all communications were to be directed to her are attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein. Again, Bookout disregarded these demands and continued his almost daily barrage of communications to various SBBT employees, officer and directors. (See Exhibit H.) As reflected in Exhibit B, the communications sent by Ms. Lee demonstrate that Ms. Lee continually asked Bookout to stop contacting SBBT employees, officer and directors and that he ignored this demand.

These communications from Bookout have at all times been unwelcome, annoying and constitute harassment of SBBT employees, officers and directors. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag, ¶ 4.) True and correct copies of two occasions where SBBT employees memorialized telephone discussions with Bookout where they advised Bookout that he was not to contact them again and only speak through SBBT's counsel are attached hereto as Exhibit C and incorporated herein. Bookout's communications have distracted SBBT's employees, officer and directors from carrying out their day-to-day tasks because they continue to be bombarded with communications from Bookout. These communications serve no legitimate purpose because the employees, officers and directors who Bookout has contacted have no authority to discuss Bookout's loan with him and, for the most part, are not even in the department that handles Bookout's loan. Furthermore, at all times between December 2010 and the present day, Bookout has been told that his communications with SBBT employees, officers and directors were to cease and that all communications by him are to be directed to Mr. Lazar and subsequently to Ms. Lee, and that any and all of his questions would be answered by those designated representatives. (See Exhibits A through D.) True and correct copies of several letters from Sontag to Bookout stating that all communications were to be directed to SBBT's counsel and that no SBBT employee, officer or director would respond to Bookout's accusations are attached hereto as Exhibit D and incorporated herein.

In April 2011, Ms. Lee and a management level SBBT officer attended a mediation with Bookout to attempt to resolve Bookout's issues. Immediately after the mediation, Bookout resumed his campaign of sending communications to various SBBT representatives other than Ms. Lee in direct contradiction to the agreement that had been reached by the parties at the mediation. (See Exhibit H.)

After the mediation, on May 6, 2011, SBBT voluntarily provided additional documentation to Bookout in an attempt to address all of his concerns regarding the handling of the loan. A true and correct copy of the May 6, 2011 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit E and incorporated herein. This act of good faith was not reciprocated as Bookout continued his almost daily barrage of harassing communications to employees, officers and board members, despite his agreement not to do so. (See Exhibit H.)

After nearly five months of constant harassment and as the volume of communications from Bookout increased, several SBBT employees, officers and directors (the additional Protected Persons identified in Paragraph 3 of the Request for Orders to Stop Harassment) began complaining to SBBT's management. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag, ¶ 7.) These individuals, including Sontag, attested to the fact that Bookout's ongoing harassment was distracting them and preventing them from carrying out their work. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag, ¶ 7 and 8.) These individuals also expressed their concern that Bookout's tone is becoming more desperate and, as a result, more alarming to them because they are concerned that Bookout may resort to violence or other drastic measures. (See Declaration of Christine Sontag, ¶ 7.)

In response, on May 10, 2011, Sontag wrote a letter to Bookout again demanding that Bookout direct all communications regarding his loan to Diana Jessup Lee and nobody else at SBBT including herself. (See Exhibit D.) Bookout immediately violated this demand on the same day. (See Exhibit H.) On May 12, 2011, Ms. Lee wrote another letter to Bookout reiterating Sontag's demand from the prior day that he cease all communications with any SBBT employee, officer or director and warning him that a temporary restraining order would be sought if he failed to abide by this demand. (See Exhibit B.) Again, Bookout violated this demand on the very same day. (See Exhibit H.)

In light of Bookout's continuing harassment, on May 19, 2011, Ms. Lee sent a final cease and desist letter to Bookout. In that letter, Ms. Lee again repeated SBBT's demand that Bookout direct all communication regarding the loan to her and no other SBBT employee, officer or director. In an effort to dissuade Bookout from continuing his harassment, Ms. Lee again answered the four main questions that Bookout has continually asked over and over for the past five months. A true and correct copy of the May 19, 2011 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit F and incorporated herein. This effort, as with all prior efforts, was ignored by Bookout causing this Request to become necessary. True and correct copies of the several letters sent by Bookout after the May 19, 2011 cease and desist letter and prior to the filing of this Request are attached hereto as Exhibit G and incorporated herein.

An Order from this Court is necessary to stop the harassment of the Protected Persons.

Attachment 13: Delivery of Orders to Law Enforcement

1 directed to Ms. Lee and that he was to cease contacting any SBBT employees, officers or directors on
2 matters related to his loan.

3 7. After nearly five months of continuous harassment on the part of Mr. Bookout and a
4 refusal by him to only direct his communications to SBBT's outside counsel, the additional Protected
5 Persons (identified in this Request) began contacting me and complaining that Mr. Bookout's ongoing
6 harassment was distracting them and preventing them from carrying out their day-to-day work tasks.
7 Based upon my review of the communications traffic from Mr. Bookout to these individuals and the 8 amount of time they spent reporting these communications, I agreed with their concerns. Some of the 9 Protected Persons also expressed their concern that Mr. Bookout's tone is becoming more desperate
10 and, as a result, more alarming to them because they are concerned that he may resort to violence or 11 other drastic measures if his demands are not met.

12 8. Mr. Bookout's communications to me have been annoying and have simply harassed 13 me. Mr. Bookout's conduct and his communications to me have distracted me from my job tasks and 14 have prevented me from carrying out my day-to-day work tasks.

15 9. Attached hereto as Exhibit G are true and correct copies of the communications Mr.
16 Bookout sent to me and the other Protected Persons after he received the cease and desist letter from 17 Ms. Lee on May 19, 2011.

18 10. Attached hereto as Exhibit H is a sampling of the over 200 emails, letters and 19 telephone calls which Mr. Bookout transmitted to me and the other Protected Persons since December 20 2010. Portions of the produced communications were redacted to avoid duplication and to save the 21 Court's time. The entirety of the communications sent by Mr. Bookout have not been produced in 22 deference to the Court's filing system.

23 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is

DECLARATION OF DIANA JESSUP LEE

I, DIANA JESSUP LEE, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of California. I am outside counsel for Santa Barbara Bank & Trust, N.A. ("SBBT") and in that capacity the Protected Persons in this Petition. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth below, except as to matters stated on information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true.

2. I have reviewed the email communications from Mr. Bookout to the Protected Persons since December 2010. Those communications are in excess of 200. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit H are true and correct copies of a representative sampling of Mr. Bookout's communications to the Protected Persons. If the Court would like to see all of Mr. Bookout's communications, I will provide them. However, in deference to the Court's filing system, I attached only a representative sampling of his communications.

3. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit B are true and correct copies of emails I sent to Mr. Bookout advising him that I am outside counsel for SBBT and that I am to be his sole point of contact with SBBT on matters related to his loan or his dispute. In these letters I also demand that Mr. Bookout cease all contact with any SBBT employees, officers and directors.

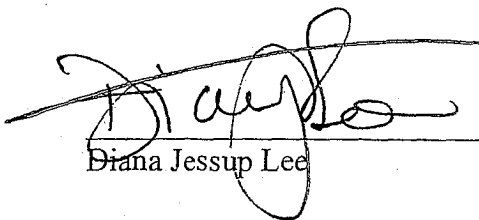

4. After participating in a full day of mediation with Mr. Bookout on May 6, 2011, I sent Mr. Bookout a letter with additional information that he had requested during the mediation. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached as Exhibit E and incorporated herein.

5. After Mr. Bookout refused to cease his contact with SBBT employees, officers and directors despite numerous requests to do so, on May 19, 2011, I wrote to Mr. Bookout explaining that his emails and other communications constitute harassment because they are annoying, alarming and serve no legitimate purpose. I also explained that as a result of his irrational and harassing conduct some employees have become frightened and concerned that he could escalate to violence. In that letter I again answered his most repeated questions, and warned him that if he contacts any SBBT employees, officers or directors, I will seek a restraining order against you. A true and correct copy of my May 19, 2011 letter is attached as Exhibit F and incorporated herein. Unfortunately, Mr. Bookout

1 has disregarded all requests for him to stop harassing SBBT employees, officers and directors, making
2 this request for a restraining order necessary.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is
4 true and correct.

Re: Bookout Loan

Dear Mr. Bookout:

As you know, I represent Pacific Capital Bank, N.A. ("PCB") and have been designated by PCB as its representative for all communications with you, and in particular, for all issues related to your outstanding and seriously past due Small Business Administration Loan.

Since June, 2007, George Lazar, Christine Sontag, other PCB employees and I have repeatedly instructed you to direct all communications initially to George Lazar and subsequently to me. We have repeatedly demanded that you cease all further contact and communications with PCB employees, officers and directors, because the volume (multiple hundreds) and nature of your communications are threatening and harassing. Despite occasional agreement to these demands, you refuse to comply with these demands, and you exhibit an uncontrolled obsession with attacking PCB employees and blaming them for your various misfortunes in life. Because of the aggressive and irrational nature of your communications, all PCB employees, officers and directors have been instructed not to engage with you, and you have been advised in writing that their failure to respond to your communications cannot be construed as agreement with any of your characterizations, but rather reflects PCB's designation of me as the single source of all communications with you. For the record, PCB disagrees with your characterization of events and facts.

Your daily barrage of emails, telephone calls, voicemails and letters to PCB employees, officers and directors is annoying, alarming, serves no legitimate purpose and constitutes harassment. Your false accusations and conspiracy theories distract PCB employees from performing their work, and have become so irrational and harassing that they frighten some employees, who are alarmed and concerned about what you might do next and whether you might physically harm them.

In this letter I again answer your most repeated questions, and warn you that if you contact any PCB employees, officers or directors, I will seek a restraining order against you. If we are forced to obtain a restraining order against you, we will be entitled to recover the attorneys fees and costs incurred in taking such action. To the extent you have any legitimate questions or concerns, please direct them to me. Rest assured that I have full access to PCB officials and information, and I can provide you with any information to which you are entitled.

In an effort to assuage your compulsion to send repeated emails, I again provide you with the following answers to your questions:

1. Your question: "How did Pacific Capital Bank come up with a loan debt of $465,195.50 [and monthly payment amount of $4,055.30] on July 6, 2007 per Pacific Capital Banks amortization schedule # 1 prepared by Pacific Capital Bank attached above, dated May 5, 2011?"

Answer: As of May 6, 2006, the principal balance due on your loan was $420,024.30. (See enclosed Payment Notice dated June 23, 2006.) After May 6, 2006, you failed to make any payments on the loan until the Forbearance Agreement was entered into on or around July 6, 2007. As of July 6, 2007, your account was $67,445.66 past due as a result of your failure to make the prior 15 months of payments. Due to the variable interest rate on your loan, the payments owed for those 15 months were as follows: May and June 2006: $4,386.41 each; July 2006: $4,467.40; August 2006 through July 2007 (12 payments): $4,517.12 each. Thus, as of July 6, 2007 and prior to executing the Forbearance Agreement, the total amount of principal and interest you owed (not including late fees, attorneys fees and other costs that PCB is entitled to charge you pursuant to the SBA loan) was $487,469.96. Pursuant to the terms of the Forbearance Agreement, you paid $22,274.46 to satisfy the May 2006 through September 2006 payments, and the remainder of your past due payments ($45,171.20) were amortized over the remaining life of the loan. Therefore, subtracting $22,274.46 from $487,469.96 results in a total of $465,195.50, which when amortized at 6% over 171 payments yields a monthly payment of $4,055.30. Let me repeat, this amount does not include any late fees, attorneys fees or any other charges other than principal and interest.

2. Your statements to the effect that PCB has admitted grand theft or any other wrongdoing by virtue of providing you with Schedule 2 are categorically untrue. PCB's decision to provide you with an alternate application of payments in a manner that extends benefits to you that you would not otherwise be entitled to (i.e., Schedule 2), was done in a good faith effort to resolve your disputes. PCB reserves the right to withdraw Schedule 2 at its discretion at any time.
3. Your question: "How did PCB come up with the 10 deferred payments from May 5, 2006 to July 6, 2007 of $67,445.66?"

Answer: When the Forbearance Agreement was executed, you had missed 15 payments totaling $67,445.66, as explained above. Pursuant to the Forbearance Agreement, your payment of $22,274.46 was applied to the first five (May 2006—September 2006) of those 15 missed payments with the remaining 10 "deferred" payments (October 2006—July 2007) amortized over the remaining life of the loan. Thus, Schedule 1 states that the deferred payments were $67,445.66, and then credits your payment of $22,274.46, resulting in a balance of deferred payments of $45,171.20 (which is the same amount arrived at by multiplying the then-monthly payment amount of $4,517.12 by 10 for each month not paid). The principal and interest payments for October 2006 through July 2007 were $4,517.12 based on the 10.25% interest rate that applied to your loan at that time (the Prime Rate during that period was 8.25%). Pursuant to the Forbearance Agreement, the deferred payment amount of $45,171.20 was accelerated and became immediately payable in full within 15 days, when you defaulted on the Forbearance Agreement. Thus, the principal balance of $420,024.30 plus $45,171.20 in deferred payments equals $465,195.50. Furthermore, the immediately due and payable $45,171.20 amount will be included as part of your default in any future Notice of Default.

4. Your question: "George C. Lazar claimed in an NOD Account email on January 25, 2011 that, Pacific Capital Bank was owed 10 deferred payments and interest from 10/2006 - 7/2007 of $37,801.09. How did Pacific Capital Bank come up with an additional $27,394.41 owed in Pacific Capital Banks Amortization Schedule # 1 prepared on May 5, 2011?"

Answer: The $37,801.09 amount in George Lazar's January 25, 2011 email referred only to the interest owed on the 10 remaining payments (October 2006—July 2007). The $67,445.66 figure represents the past due principal and interest for all 15 of your missed payments prior to execution of the Forbearance Agreement. As stated above, in calculating Schedule 1, $22,274.46 was subtracted from $67,445.66 as stated in the Forbearance Agreement.

I trust this helps resolves your concerns. As stated previously, I remain interested in discussing legitimate solutions to your concerns. You may write or call me. Do not, however, contact or communicate with any PCB employees, officers or directors. This prohibition includes not copying any PCB employees, officers or directors on any communication to me or anyone else. Your failure to abide by these demands will result in me taking immediate steps to obtain a restraining order against you.

Sincerely,

Re: Bookout Loan

Dear Mr. Bookout:

Thank you for taking the time to sit down with us at the mediation. It was very helpful to come to a better understanding of your perspective on what happened and what might be done to resolve this dispute.

As you know, a schedule showing anticipated payments and the application of those anticipated payments was not requested or prepared at the time you entered into the Forbearance Agreement effective June 30, 2007. Since that time you have made many payments in varying amounts and you have failed to make many payments. You have been provided with schedules showing application of your actual payments and your declining loan balance. Nevertheless, at your request, we have created for you an amortization schedule as if today were June 30, 2007. That schedule is enclosed as "Schedule 1."

In the process of creating Schedule 1, some relatively minor differences of opinion developed regarding how to interpret and apply the terms of the Forbearance Agreement. As part of the mediation and compromise process, we decided to prepare a second schedule, "Schedule 2," which extends every possible advantage to you, even if not consistent with the terms of your SBA loan or the computerized software that tracks loans. We do this in an effort to eliminate any further disputes with you, as well as the cost to all parties of continued disagreement.

We have recalculated the application of your actual payments using the favorable considerations given to you in Schedule 2. Nevertheless, your loan remains significantly past due (17 monthly payments plus the unpaid deferred amounts which were past due at the time of the 2007 Forbearance Agreement totaling in excess of $100,000). If you have a reasonable plan for curing your past due balance, we remain very interested in hearing it. Otherwise, we will have no option but to go forward with foreclosure proceedings which, as we agreed in the mediation, will be re-started with a new Notice of Default after May 13, 2011.

If you have any questions, please direct them to me.

Sincerely,

12 Service of Order on Restrained Person

a. The person in 2 personally attended the hearing. No other proof of service is needed.

b. The person in 2 did not attend the hearing.

(1) Proof of service of Form CH-110, Temporary Restraining Order, was presented to the court. The judge's orders in this form are the same as in Form CH-110 except for the expiration date. The person in 2 must be served with this Order. Service may be by mail.

(2) The judge's orders in this form are different from the temporary restraining orders in Form CH-110. Someone—but not anyone in 1 or 3—must personally serve a copy of this Order on the person in 2.

13 No Fee to Serve (Notify) Restrained Person

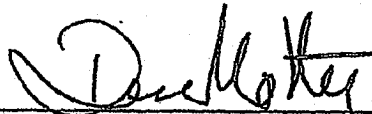

The sheriff or marshal will serve this Order without charge because:

a. The Order is based on unlawful violence, a credible threat of violence, or stalking.

b. The person in 1 is entitled to a fee waiver.

Warning and Notice to the Restrained Person in 2 :

You Cannot Have Guns or Firearms

You cannot own, have, possess, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or otherwise get guns, other firearms, or ammunition while this Order is in effect. If you do, you can go to jail and pay a $1,000 fine. You must sell to a licensed gun dealer or turn in to a law enforcement agency any guns or other firearms that you have or control as stated in item 8 above. The court will require you to prove that you did so.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This Order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the Order, is shown a copy of the Order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the Order and then must enforce it. Violations of this Order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This Order starts on the date next to the judge's signature on page 4 and ends on the expiration date in item ④ on page 1.

Arrest Required If Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed it, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Pen. Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6. Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS.

Notice/Proof of Service

The law enforcement agency must first determine if the restrained person had notice of the order. Consider the restrained person "served" (given notice) if (Pen. Code, § 836(c)(2)):

- The officer sees a copy of the Proof of Service or confirms that the Proof of Service is on file; or
- The restrained person was at the restraining order hearing or was informed of the order by an officer.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the restrained person cannot be verified and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this Order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders

A protective order issued in a criminal case on Form CR-161 takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. (Pen. Code, § 136.2(e)(2).) Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in full force. An Emergency Protective Order (Form EPO-001) that is in effect between the same parties and is more restrictive than other restraining orders takes precedence over all other restraining orders. (Pen. Code, § 136.2.)
